9	grams currently in place at financial institu-
10	tions that are suitable for broader adoption.
11	(B) Recommended changes, if necessary,
12	to the internal policies, procedures, and controls
13	at financial institutions so that such institu-
14	tions can better deter and detect money laun-
15	dering related to human trafficking.
16	(C) Recommended changes, if necessary, to
17	ongoing employee training programs at finan-
18	cial institutions so that those institutions can
19	better equip employees to deter and detect
20	money laundering related to human trafficking,
21	including the training of legal counsel, risk
22	managers, and compliance officers.
23	(D) Recommended revisions, if necessary,
24	to existing regulatory requirements and guide-
25	lines for the reporting of suspicious trans-

1	actions by financial institutions, as required
2	pursuant to section 5318(g) of title 31, United
3	States Code, in order to facilitate the collection
4	of data on instances of suspected human traf-
5	ficking.
