The Honorable Elizabeth Warren
309 Hart Senate Office Building
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Warren:

Thank you for your March 31, 2022 letter to the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC” or “Commission”) regarding the potential employee impact of the proposed acquisition of Activision Blizzard, Inc. by Microsoft.

I share your concern that monopsony power in labor markets may enable firms to harm workers in a host of ways, including through undermining their rights and dignity. Although antitrust law in recent decades generally has neglected monopsony concerns and harms to workers, I strongly believe that merger investigations must scrutinize the impact on labor markets.<sup>1</sup> Given that Activision disclosed in a March 21, 2022 securities filing that the FTC is conducting a review of the proposed transaction,<sup>2</sup> I am able to confirm that the FTC is investigating the proposed merger.<sup>3</sup> Whenever the FTC initiates a merger review, we are committed to thoroughly examining effects on competition in all relevant markets for potential law enforcement action as appropriate.

The FTC and the Department of Justice are redoubling our commitment to ensuring we consider how unlawful mergers and conduct may harm workers. The agencies recently hosted a joint workshop focused on competition and labor markets,<sup>4</sup> and our current joint public inquiry to consider revisions to the merger guidelines includes a request for public comments to inform
